Words of greeting for overseas travelers

During the Edo era (17th ~ 19th century), there had been many popular inns called “HATAGO” all over Japan, Although they had disappeared due to development of public transportations (for example, train and bus), recently everyone can have a trip on his / her own way with the benefit of the spread of private cars. That is why we have named our motels “HATAGO-YA”.

However “Family Lodge HATAGOYA” is not a traditional Japanese inn. We have no TATAMI, FUTON and Japanese food. It's very MOTEL you are used to (Surprisingly, we are the only one motel management here in Japan , nevertheless running less than 100 motels) So it's better for you not to expect so-called Japanese atmosphere or OMOTENASHI mind.

From the bignning, what do you think of Japanese people ? At present, there is no SAMURAI with CHOMMAGE hair tied-up on his head and no NINJA. Also it's very rare to see the person who wears KIMONO routinely. Sometimes we come across wooden traditional architectures which had been built hundreds years ago, but most of them are for religions, sightseeing or preservations. On the contrary, every Japanese is not an animation geek and everyone can not use high-tech devices skillfully.

You can feel Japan as it is today (not for sightseeing) by staying here in FamilyLodge HATAGOYA.

Thank you.
